

The Successful Head Teacher: Essential Business Skills

Schools are complex multi-million pound organisations. You are responsible for all of it. Are you prepared?

You already know about high quality teaching and learning. What about all the other aspects of your school you are now responsible for?

This NEW development programme will provide you with key knowledge and skills in:

- ✓ People
- ✓ Finance
- ✓ Legal
- ✓ Health and Safety
- ✓ Estate Management
- ✓ Resource Management

"I wish I had known how important HR is, including how to balance challenge with holding people to account".

Head Teacher, Birmingham

NEW!

"Headship is about the aspects you never really touch on as a deputy, including understanding what is "reasonable" when dealing with legal issues, especially with difficult parents."

Head Teacher, Sandwell

Benefits include:

- Membership of the Institute of Leadership and Management with access to a range of resources
- A minimum of 6 days face-to-face input in year one
- Extensive peer network support plus visits to G1 schools
- Invitation to bespoke events with keynote speakers
- Coaching and support in Year 2

Specifically designed for NEW, recently appointed or aspiring head teachers, this essential programme provides all the knowledge, skills and support you need in areas not covered by traditional head teacher professional development programmes.

A two year programme at £1,800 per year. Interested and wish to find out more?

Contact: linda.brown@servicesforeducation.co.uk | Tel: 07825 153 836